You have received two identical ID cards indicating necessary liability insurance for the described vehicle & named insured thereon.

CARD 1 should be kept in your car, preferably in the glove compartment.

CARD 2 should be kept in a safe place until needed for vehicle registration, at which time it is surrendered for verification of insurance coverage. It will not be returned.

Should NY authority reject this ID card, please contact us and we will issue you another set.

For your convenience, you can request a duplicate Auto Insurance ID card on-line at usaa.com.

The name and vehicle identification number (VIN) on your ID CARD should match exactly the name and VIN appearing on your Motor Vehicle Registration.
